

SAT PREPARATION AT LE ROSEY

The Le Rosey SAT Program helps students achieve exceptional results on the highly-competitive SAT exam required for admission to most American universities.

Sarina Steinbarth, a Yale-educated test prep expert with over 20 years of experience, created the program specifically around the complex needs of Rosey students. Each of our veteran instructors –all hand-picked and trained by Ms. Steinbarth – has taught 10,000+ hours of SAT lessons for Kaplan, The Princeton Review, and Le Rosey.

Program Highlights

- Consistently produces the highest SAT scores and highest SAT score increases at Le Rosey.
- Top 7 Class T SAT scores (1500+) for 2023 were from the Rosey SAT program.
- Highest score in the last 3 years: 1590 (out of 1600)
- Highest score increase: 590 points (32nd – 99th percentile)
- Average score increase: 290 points (50th – 90th percentile)

Program Details

- Private and small-group instruction with an average class size of under 2 students.
- Ability-appropriate class placement based on diagnostic test score.
- In order to achieve exceptional results through discipline and rigor we require students to attend:
  - 3 classes per academic week
  - 3 practice tests per term.
- Parents receive feedback on students' end-of-term reports.
- Students typically begin during the Fall Term of Class 2.

Program Costs

- Autumn Term (September to December 2024): CHF 7,600
- Winter Term (January to March 2025): CHF 6,200
- Spring Term (April to June 2025): CHF 6,900
- Includes all class and test materials (SAT Course Manual, SAT Practice Tests)
- Classes are billed on a termly "forfait" basis and are not "drop-in" private classes on an ad-hoc basis.
